Eindhoven, the Netherlands, July 2, 2015 – NXP Semiconductors N.V. (NASDAQ: NXPI) (“NXP”) today announced the results of its Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders held on July 2, 2015.

The Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders resolved on the following items:

- Approval (within the meaning of article 2:107a of the Dutch Civil Code) of the completion by NXP of the merger (the “Merger”) of Nimble Acquisition Limited, a wholly-owned, indirect subsidiary of NXP (“Merger Sub”), with and into Freescale Semiconductor, Ltd. (“Freescale”), with Freescale surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned, indirect subsidiary of NXP and the other transactions contemplated by the agreement and plan of merger (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of March 1, 2015 and as may be amended from time to time, by and among Freescale, NXP and Merger Sub;
- Authorization of the board of directors of NXP (the “NXP Board”) for a period of 18 months, i.e., until and including January 1, 2017, to issue up to 125,000,000 NXP ordinary shares, par value EUR 0.20 per share (each, an “NXP Ordinary Share”) and to authorize the NXP Board to deliver the NXP Ordinary Shares held in treasury in connection with the Merger, in each case, as payment of the portion of the merger consideration (as described in the joint proxy statement/prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the U.S. (Registration No. 333-203192) (the “Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus”)) consisting of NXP Ordinary Shares in accordance with the Merger Agreement;
- Authorization of the NXP Board for a period of 18 months, i.e., until and including January 1, 2017, to grant the right to acquire up to 12,500,000 NXP Ordinary Shares in connection with the assumption by NXP of the stock options, unvested restricted share units and unvested performance-based restricted share units granted by Freescale as further described in the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Treatment of Freescale Equity Awards” in the Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus;
- Appointment of Gregory L. Summe as non-executive director of NXP, effective as of the effective time of the Merger and for a term ending at the close of the first NXP annual general meeting held after such effective time; and
- Appointment of Peter Smitham as non-executive director of NXP, effective as of the effective time of the Merger and for a term ending at the close of the first NXP annual general meeting held after such effective time.

This report also contains NXP and Freescale’s joint press release dated July 2, 2015 entitled: “NXP and Freescale Shareholders Meetings Approve Merger”.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this communication regarding the proposed transaction between NXP and FSL are “forward-looking” statements. The words “anticipate,” “believe,” “ensure,” “expect,” “if,” “intend,” “estimate,” “probable,” “project,” “forecasts,” “predict,” “outlook,” “aim,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “would,” “potential,” “may,” “might,” “anticipate,” “likely,” “plan,” “positioned,” “strategy,” and similar expressions, and the negative thereof, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements, which are subject to numerous factors, risks and uncertainties about NXP and FSL, may include projections of their respective future business, strategies, financial condition, results of operations and market data. These statements are only predictions based on current expectations and projections about future events. There are important factors, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected, including the risk factors set forth in the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus, NXP’s most recent Form 20-F and FSL’s most recent reports on Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and other documents on file with the SEC and the factors given below:

- the failure to consummate or delay in consummating the proposed transaction;
- the timing to consummate the proposed transaction;
- the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied;
- the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed transaction is delayed, is not obtained, or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated;
- NXP’s and FSL’s ability to achieve the synergies and value creation contemplated by the proposed transaction;
- the ability of either NXP or FSL to effectively integrate their businesses; and
- the diversion of management time on transaction-related issues.

FSL’s and NXP’s forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that may not prove to be accurate. Neither FSL nor NXP can guarantee future results, level of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, neither FSL nor NXP assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of any of these forward-looking statements. FSL and NXP assume no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof.

NXP and Freescale Shareholders Meetings Approve Merger

NXP Shareholders Meeting appoint Gregory L. Summe and Peter Smitham as non-executive directors of NXP

EINDHOVEN, Netherlands and AUSTIN, Texas – July 2, 2015 – Today, NXP Semiconductors N.V. (“NXP”) (NASDAQ: NXPI) held an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders (Special Meeting) and Freescale Semiconductor (NYSE:FSL) held a Special General Meeting on NXP’s acquisition of Freescale. Both NXP’s Special Meeting and Freescale’s Special General Meeting approved the merger proposal with over 99% of the votes cast in favor of the merger. The NXP Special Meeting also appointed Gregory L. Summe and Peter Smitham as non-executive directors of NXP, effective as of the closing of the merger.

“We welcome the decisions to approve the merger proposal with such an overwhelming majority. The combination of NXP and Freescale creates an industry powerhouse focused on the high-growth opportunities in the Smarter World. We fully expect to continue to significantly out-grow the overall market, drive world-class profitability and generate even more cash, which taken together will maximize value for both Freescale and NXP shareholders,” said Rick Clemmer, Chief Executive Officer of NXP.

Completion of the merger remains subject to obtaining antitrust and other regulatory approvals in certain jurisdictions, and other customary closing conditions. NXP and Freescale continue to expect the merger to close in the second half of calendar year 2015.
