Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this communication regarding the proposed transaction between NXP and FSL are “forward-looking” statements. The words “anticipate,” “believe,” “ensure,” “expect,” “if,” “intend,” “estimate,” “probable,” “project,” “forecasts,” “predict,” “outlook,” “aim,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “would,” “potential,” “may,” “might,” “anticipate,” “likely,” “plan,” “positioned,” “strategy,” and similar expressions, and the negative thereof, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements, which are subject to numerous factors, risks and uncertainties about NXP and FSL, may include projections of their respective future business, strategies, financial condition, results of operations and market data. These statements are only predictions based on current expectations and projections about future events. There are important factors, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual outcomes and results to be materially different from those projected, including the risk factors set forth in the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus, NXP’s most recent Form 20-F and FSL’s most recent reports on Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and other documents on file with the SEC and the factors given below:

- the failure to consummate or delay in consummating the proposed transaction;
- the timing to consummate the proposed transaction;
- the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied;

- the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed transaction is delayed, is not obtained, or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated;
- NXP's and FSL's ability to achieve the synergies and value creation contemplated by the proposed transaction;
- the ability of either NXP or FSL to effectively integrate their businesses; and
- the diversion of management time on transaction-related issues.

FSL's and NXP's forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that may not prove to be accurate. Neither FSL nor NXP can guarantee future results, level of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, neither FSL nor NXP assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of any of these forward-looking statements. FSL and NXP assume no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof.

The following is a press release dated October 13, 2015 entitled: "NXP Semiconductors Announces Conference Call to Review Third Quarter 2015 Financial Results and Provides Update on Regulatory Approval of Previously Announced Merger".

NXP Semiconductors Announces Conference Call to

Review Third Quarter 2015 Financial Results and

Provides Update on Regulatory Approval of Previously Announced Merger

Eindhoven, Netherlands, October 13, 2015 - NXP Semiconductors N.V. (NASDAQ: NXPI) announced today it will release financial results for the third quarter of 2015 after the close of extended trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on Wednesday October 28, 2015. The release will be followed by a conference call with the financial community on Thursday October 29, 2015 at 8:00 AM U.S. Eastern Daylight Time.

NXP also announced today that the regulatory approval process on the NXP-Freescale Semiconductor ("FSL") merger and the sale of NXP's RF Power business is progressing as anticipated. NXP believes it is on track to close the transactions, including the sale of the RF Power business to Beijing Jianguang Asset Management Co., Ltd. (JAC Capital), in the fourth quarter of 2015. Next to the already received clearances, including the clearance received from the European Commission, NXP expects clearance decisions in the USA, China and South Korea. In the meantime, the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS) has completed its action on the NXP-FSL merger. CFIUS has informed NXP and JAC Capital that it will conduct a 45-day investigation of the sale of the RF Power business that is expected to be completed no later than November 23, 2015.

Due to the anticipated timing of the completion of the previously announced merger, NXP will only provide limited guidance for the fourth quarter of 2015 at the time it publishes its third quarter results.
