

All of the other terms and conditions of the Exchange Offers remain unchanged, including the Early Tender Date for the private offer to exchange the Existing Unsecured Notes listed in the table below for New Super Priority Notes. The Withdrawal Deadline for both Exchange Offers remains 5:00 p.m. New York City time, on March 16, 2009 and has passed. Any tenders of Existing Notes made after the Withdrawal Deadline cannot be withdrawn.

In addition, the Issuers also announced that as of 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Monday, March 16, 2009 (the “Original Early Tender Date”), they had received the following aggregate principal amount of tenders of Existing Notes:

Outstanding Principal Amount (in millions)	Title of Existing Notes to be tendered	Principal Amount of each Issue of Existing Notes Delivered (in millions)	Title of New Super Priority Notes to be issued	Total Consideration per $1,000 or €1,000 Principal Amount of Existing Notes Tendered prior to or on the Early Tender Date(*)	Acceptance Priority Level

€525	8 ⅝% senior notes due 2015	€58	Euro-denominated 10% super priority notes due 2013	€170	1
€1,000	Floating rate senior secured notes due 2013	€57	Euro-denominated 10% super priority notes due 2013	€270	2
$1,535	Floating rate senior secured notes due 2013	$109	U.S. dollar- denominated 10% super priority notes due 2013	$270	2
$1,026	7 ⅞ senior secured notes due 2014	$19	U.S. dollar- denominated 10% super priority notes due 2013	$320	2

* The New Dollar Super Priority Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of $75,000 and in integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof. The New Euro Super Priority Notes will be issued in minimum denominations of €50,000 and in integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof. As a result, holders will be unable to participate in the Exchange Offers if their ownership of Existing Notes is not great enough to meet these minimum requirements.

The Issuers’ obligation to accept any Existing Notes tendered and to pay the applicable consideration for them is set forth solely in the Offering Memorandum and the Letter of Transmittal. The order of acceptance of Existing Notes will be solely determined according to the Acceptance Priority Levels mentioned in the table above and described in the Offering Memorandum.

The aggregate principal amount of New Super Priority Notes that the Issuers are offering to exchange shall not be greater than €250 million or the U.S. dollar equivalent as of the Acceptance Date (the “Maximum Exchange Amount”). The Issuers reserve the right, but are not obligated, to increase or decrease the Maximum Exchange Amount for the New Super Priority Notes.

The Exchange Offers will expire at midnight, New York City time, on March 30, 2009, unless extended or earlier terminated (the “Expiration Date”).

The New Super Priority Notes will be guaranteed by certain of the Company’s current and future material wholly-owned subsidiaries, and will be secured, subject to the terms of the security documents, on an equal basis with all secured debt outstanding under the Issuers’ senior revolving credit facility.

The Exchange Offers are being made within the United States only to “qualified institutional buyers” pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and to persons that are not “U.S. persons”, as such term is defined in Rule 902(k) of Regulation S under the Securities Act and who would be participating in any transaction in accordance with Regulation S. The New Super Priority Notes to be offered have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent an applicable exemption from registration requirements. The Exchange Offers are not being made to any person located or resident in the Republic of Italy. This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy Existing Notes or New Super Priority Notes in any jurisdiction in which such an offer or sale would be unlawful.

The Issuers’ obligation to accept any Existing Notes tendered and to pay the applicable consideration for them is set forth solely in the Offering Memorandum and the Letter of Transmittal. Documents relating to the Exchange Offers will only be distributed to holders of Existing Notes who complete a letter of eligibility confirming that they are within the category of eligible holders for these private offers. The Exchange Offers are made only by, and pursuant to, the terms set forth in the Offering Memorandum, and the information in this press release is qualified by reference to the Offering Memorandum and the accompanying Letter of Transmittal. Subject to applicable law, the Issuers may amend, extend or terminate the Exchange Offers.

The Existing Notes are listed on the Alternative Securities Market of the Irish Stock Exchange in accordance with the rules of that exchange and an application will be made for the New Super Priority Notes to be listed on the same exchange.
